

About Membership in the Accredited Gemologists Association

Accredited Gemologists Association is a professional peer society providing a network for sharing gemological information and skills. AGA proudly counts some of the world's leading gemologists as members and is internationally respected as a premier gemological organization.

As an AGA member, you gain:

- Peer recognition for active participation in educational programs and industry forums
- Personal satisfaction of improving your skills and contributing to your profession
- Access to exclusive gemological webinars and presentations
- Inclusion in the "find a member" search function on the AGA website

Membership levels are:

Voting Member: Available to an individual who has successfully completed study and holds a gemological credential (GG, FGA, FCGmA, SSEF, FFEG, FGG) from a school of gemology approved by the Board of Governors. The title "Accredited Senior Gemologist" is awarded to all who qualify in good standing as Voting Members of the Association. A Life Member is a Voting Member who has paid the required fee for life membership.

Only Voting Members, Life Members, and Retired Voting Members are entitled to vote on all questions before the Association's membership and to display their AGA designation and AGA logo on their website, social media pages and promotional materials.

Non-voting memberships include:

Associate Member: Available to an individual who is interested in the study of gemology but does not possess the educational requirements to be a voting member. An Associate Member is not entitled to hold office in the Association but may serve on committees.

Student Member: Available to an individual currently enrolled with a school of gemology approved by the Board of Governors. Student Membership is limited to one year after which advancement to Associate or Voting Member is required. A Student Member may not hold office in the Association.

Prior to applying for membership, please read these important AGA organizational documents that apply to all members. These documents can be found on the AGA website.

- Code of Ethics
- Constitution
- Bylaws

All applications for membership are reviewed and vetted by the AGA Membership Committee. Please contact us with any questions about membership:
